PUPIL FREE DAY

Due to our Pupil Free Day on 11th November, we will not be holding a Remembrance Day Service.

Australia celebrates
World Teachers' Day
Friday 29 October

World Teachers' Day is one of the most important events of the year for educators in SA. We all come together to celebrate the profession and to acknowledge the outstanding contribution that our educators have made to the world of learning in South Australia over the last twelve months.
In 2021 we have seen educators from all over SA commit themselves to ensuring that no matter what the challenge, every young learner in our State has still had the opportunity to be supported to reach their learning potential.

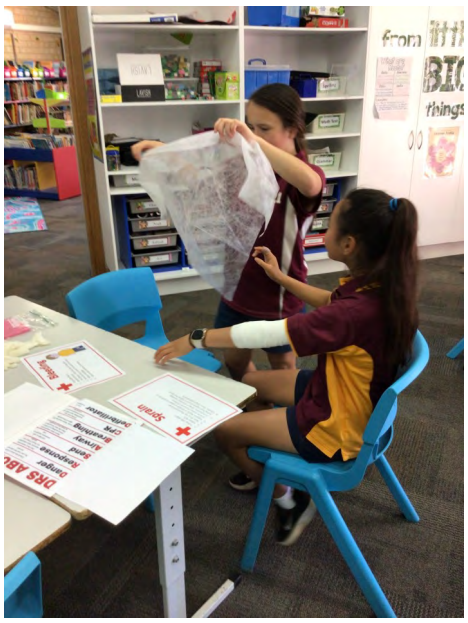
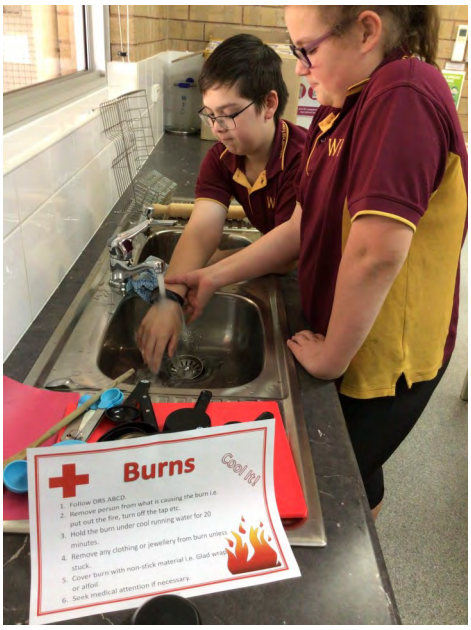
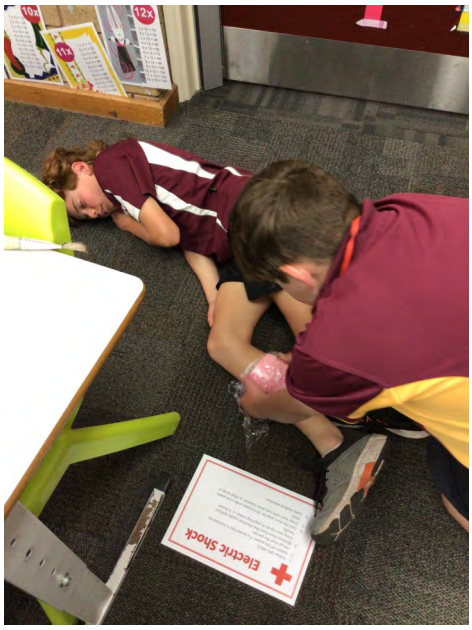
Upper Primary News

In Health the Upper Primary students have been learning about First Aid. We have been learning about this as it will help students understand and use specific vocabulary during complex situations/ emergencies. It will also help them practise communicating clearly to each other and to adults, assume roles of responsibility, and to give them the confidence and knowledge to do something in case of an emergency.







I learnt that first aid is very important to know in case someone is in need of help. I also learnt the DRS ABCD, which stands for: Danger, Response, Send, Airways, Breathing, CPR, Defibrillator. Aaliyah

I learnt that first aid is very important because it saves lives, you must learn how to do it properly though.

Australian Childhood Anxiety TREATMENT STUDY

Free home-based assessment and treatment for 7 to 12 year old children with fear and anxiety disorders.

Does your child become very afraid of certain situations or objects, worry about a lot of things, get very distressed, or try to avoid things they fear?

About the study

Our team at Griffith University may be able to assist you. We are conducting a nationwide study that includes the following services at no cost to families:

- A thorough assessment of your child's anxiety with a trained psychologist via the telephone;
- Your child receiving one of two kinds of home-based treatments delivered on a PC, laptop or tablet; and
- Two follow-up telephone assessments with a trained psychologist 6- and 12-months after treatment to track your child's progress.

The study aims to find out if these two treatments are as effective as each other, and which children have the best response to each kind of treatment. This will mean that there are more evidence-based treatments available for helping anxious children.

About the treatments

Each treatment involves your child completing treatment sessions at home on a PC, laptop or tablet.

Each treatment involves your child learning practical strategies to better manage anxiety.

- One treatment helps children learn to control the focus of their attention on helpful things around them.
- The other treatment helps children learn to think differently and approach things they fear.

Each treatment includes information, telephone or email support for parents in assisting their child to better manage anxiety.

Prior studies have shown that children who complete each treatment experience significant reductions in anxiety.

This study is being funded by the National Health and Medical Research Council and is led by Professor Allison Waters and a team of experts in childhood anxiety disorders.
